

Percentage change in the working poverty rate by neighbourhood, Metro Vancouver, 2006–2012.

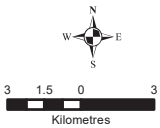

Percentage Change by Census Tracts (WP 2012 - WP 2006 / WP 2006)

- Decrease of more than 10 percent
- Change of -10 to 10 percent
- Increase of 10 to 20 percent
- Increase of 20 to 30 percent
- Increase of over 30 percent

Note: Data are mapped to 2006 boundaries. Working age population defined as individuals who are between 18 and 64, non-students and living on their own. Working status refers to persons having earnings no less than $3,000. Poor status refers to individuals with census family income below the Low Income Measure (50% of adjusted after-tax median income of all Canadians) determined from taxfiler data (T1FF).

Source: Statistics Canada, custom tabulation, T1FF tax filer data, 2006, 2012

- Not Available
- Municipalities (2006)
- Rapid Transit (2011)
- Highways and Major Roads (2011)
- Major Rivers and Lakes

November 2015